

2023 Kansas Statutes

17-7667. Service of process or service of any notice or demand. (a) Service of process or service of any notice or demand against a limited liability company may be served:

- (1) In accordance with K.S.A. 60-304 and 60-306, and amendments thereto; or
- (2) upon the resident agent at the business address of the resident agent; or
- (3) by delivery to a manager of the company, if the management is vested in a manager, or delivery to any member, if the management is vested in the members.

(b) Any notice to or demand on a company organized pursuant to this act may be made by writing, which notice or demand in writing shall be mailed to the registered office of the company in this state or to another address in this state which is the principal office of the company.

(c) Nothing contained in this section shall limit or affect the right to serve, in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law, any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a limited liability company.
