

2023 Kansas Statutes

25-214. Statutes applicable to primary elections. The provisions of existing statutes concerning elections, and any amendment now or hereafter made thereto, so far as the same are consistent with provisions of law relating to primary elections, shall apply to primary elections, the intent being to place primary elections under the regulations and protections in all respects of the laws in force as to the general elections.

History: L. 1908, ch. 54, § 10; L. 1915, ch. 204, § 8; R.S. 1923, 25-214; L. 1929, ch. 177, § 1; L. 1968, ch. 406, § 77; April 30.