

2023 Kansas Statutes

40-3638. Same; claims which may be allowed; limitations. (a) The claim of a third party which is contingent only on first obtaining a judgment against the insured shall be considered and allowed as if there were no such contingency.

(b) A claim may be allowed even if contingent, if it is filed in accordance with K.S.A. 40-3636. It may be allowed and may participate in all distributions declared after it is filed to the extent that it does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation.

(c) Claims that are due except for the passage of time shall be treated as absolute claims are treated, except such claims may be discounted at the legal rate of interest.

(d) Claims made under employment contracts by directors, principal officers, or persons in fact performing similar functions or having similar powers are limited to payment for services rendered prior to the issuance of any order of rehabilitation or liquidation under K.S.A. 40-3617 or 40-3622.
