

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-7c15. Liability insurance, persons conducting handgun safety and training courses. The committee on surety bonds and insurance, within the limitations of appropriations made therefor, shall purchase such liability insurance as it deems necessary for the protection of persons engaged in conducting an approved handgun safety and training course against any liability for injuries or damages arising from the conducting of such course of instruction by such persons.

History: L. 2006, ch. 32, § 15; L. 2010, ch. 140, § 12; July 1.