

I have a family member who receives all services by one agency. Case management is also followed by MCOs . I wouldn't change living or day it's what she wants. Case management I think MCO work close with as a second check I would think it's a choice not a mandated choice. Thank you for you time. Patty Powers